

AFTER THE HURRICANE

In the summer of 2005 the world was stunned at the plight of the people of New Orleans. Rebuilding has seen ethnic and social cleansing on the massive scale in the couple of years since the devastation.

Film maker Chris Ivey will be showing footage that he has shot and talking about events that have happened since Hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans.

Chris Ivey will be showing his documentary East of Liberty at the Rio Dalston, 1pm

Monday May 7. Cost of admission is £4
